Join the worldwide Intimacy Revolution...

The “Raw Intimacy” book series is designed to be an evangelistic tool that plant seeds of greater intimacy with God in the hearts of everyday people. According to Isaiah xx:xx God has set aside a very special blessing of Joy on His Sabbath day. Below are five easy steps for sharing the Joy of the Sabbath with friends, family members, and co-workers:

Step
1

Write down the names of four people that are close to your heart and are also in desperate need of a more intimate relationship with Jesus Christ.

Name: _____

Name: _____

Name: _____

Name: _____

Step
2

Handwrite a personal note to each of the four people listed above stating how the Raw Intimacy book spoke to your heart. Write your note on the intimacy letterhead provided.

Step
3

Mail a copy of the Raw Intimacy book along with your handwritten note to each person on your list. Make sure to also handwrite the addresses on the envelope.*

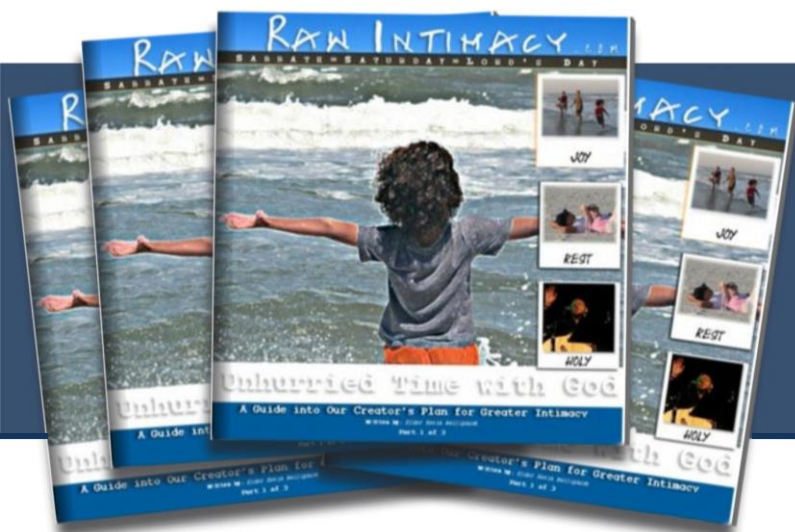

Step
4

Call/text the day after mailing the book to notify them you sent gift so they not mistake it for junk mail.

“Hey _____, I am calling to give you a heads up that I mailed you something special yesterday. Please let me know when the postman delivers your package. Thanks”

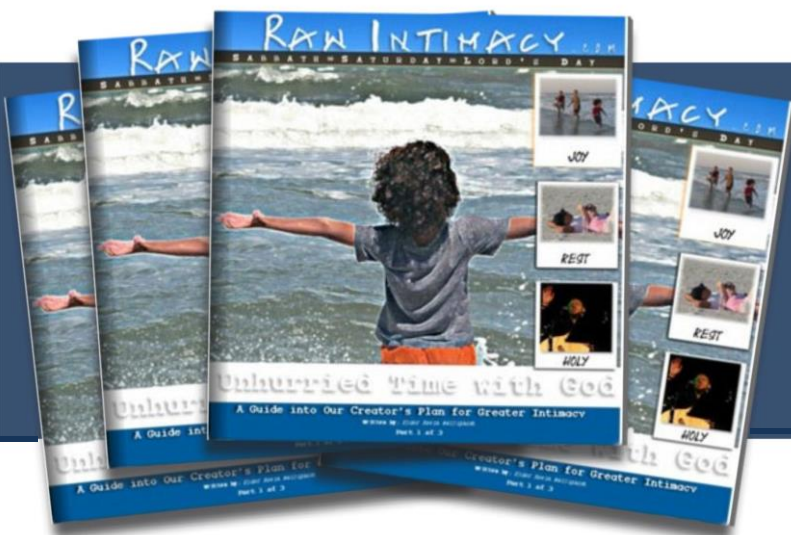

Step
5

Invite them a week later to meet you for coffee or lunch so the two of you can share stories of how setting aside intimacy time with God has impacted your life.
